MPS INVESTIGATES MURDER BY MOB AT MUBAS CAMPUS

The Malawi Police Service has instituted an investigation into a case where an unknown male African person has been murdered by some students of Malawi University of Business and Applied Sciences (MUBAS) over an allegation of theft.

The incident happened today Saturday, between 12 noon and 13:00hours.

It is alleged that, some MUBAS students dragged the alleged unknown suspect (now deceased) into their campus while heavily assaulting him over accusation that he wanted to pickpocket one of the students. An effort was made by some police officers who were around to rescue him but the students started pelting stones at the officers.

It is further alleged that, after assaulting the unknown suspect to death the students set his body on fire before police moved in to collect the dead body.

Meanwhile, police have launched investigations to apprehend the students involved in the murder of this unknown person.

The MPS strongly condemns acts of mob justice and thus, urge the public to refrain from taking the law into their own hands. The MPS further warns all those involved in mob justice that once found, they will be arrested and prosecuted accordingly.
